Western Conference Convenes at Hickory on November 17.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SALISBURY, N. C. November 10.—
The pastors and presiding elders of the Western North Carolina Methodist conference are this week closing up their year's work, preparatory to making their annual reports to the twentyeighth session of the conference, which convenes at Hickory on November 17.
Many of the presiding elders are extremely busy this week holding their final quarterly conferences, and all the pastors are hard at work on their reports. They will preach their last sermons before conference on next Sunday, Many of the pastors will be sent to other charges next year, and it is uncertain as to where they will be called upon to labor.

Bishop James Atkins, who is one of the youngest bishops in the church, will preside at the conference.

It is estimated that the conference has raised in round numbers $300,000
during the past year.

GOLD MINE SUNK.

Hole Torn in Hottom and Schooner Goes Down Off Pamilco Beach.

Goes Down of Pamilico Beach.

[Special to The Timos-Dispatch.]

WASHINGTON. N. C., November 10.—

News was brought late last night of the sinking of the schooner Gold Mine yesterday afternoon off Pamilico Beach, near the mouth of Pamilico River, while bound for this city.

This schooner was under the command of Captain Lercy Pederick, and engaged in the river traffic, plying between this city and points on lower Pamilico River. The schooner was loaded with cotton and peas, and had four passengers on board, beside the crew. It seems that she struck a submerged rock, which tore a hole in her bottom, causing her to fill immesubmerged rock, which tore a hole in her bottom, causing her to fill immediately. The passengers, T. R. Benson, William Pederick, Misses Fannie Woston and Gaskill, together with the crew, took refuge in the schooner's yawiboat, and immediately after the schooner capsized and sunk.

Captain Pederick was the last man to leave the sinking ship.

The shipwrecked party was picked up soon after by the schooner Maggie B. Captain Midgette in command, and brought to this city.

The entire cargo was a total loss, it is understood the Gold Mine will be raised as soon as possible.

STAUNTON, VA., November 10.—Dr.
John Sharshall Grasty and Miss Elizabeth Montgomery Cochran were married last evening at the home of Judge George M. Harrison, of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. M. Fraser, D. D., of the First Presbyterian Church. Owing to the recent death of the groom's father, the wedding was a very quiet one. The groom is the leider son of the late Thomas P. Grasty, of the Baltimore Manufacturers' Record, a Ph. D. of Johns Hopkins University and adjunct professor of goology at the University of Virginia. The bride is the daughter of the late Howe Peyton Cochran, of this city.

CIDER SALESMAN IN COURT. W. Taylor, Agent for Fruit Farm Before Staunton Police Justice.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] STAUNTON, VA., November 10.—J. V. Taylor was before the Police Justice this morning, charged with selling cider contrary to law. Taylor is the local agent of a fruit farm, a $100,-000 corporation, of Waynesboro, which owns the largest orchards in Augusta county, and manufactures cider ex-tensively, selling it through local agen-cies in the dry cities of the State. The cider shows 3.72 per cent. Alcohol as tested by the State Chemist. It is a test case as to whether the company has the right to sell cider through agencies.

Seward and Roper Win Their Case Against Steamboat Line.

FOUND WITH LEG CRUSHED

Bad Condition of White Man Injured on Atlantic Coast \ Line in Petersburg.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., November 10. The suit of Joseph W. Seward and LeRoy Roper against the Peteraburg. Newport News and Norfolk Steamboat Line, which began in the Hustings Court yesterday morning, ended late last evening with a verdict for the plaintiffs. The suit was to recover $21,615, the amount of a bond, claimed to be due the plaintiffs by the defendant company, and the sureties, Thomas M. Davis and C. Fisher Collier, and grew out of the sale by Seward and Roper of their interest in the line to the sureties. The jury gave a verdict for the full amount. The suit was yigorously contested. lic road, which the owners of property along the highways are glad to give to the county. There have been from fifty to sixty-five convicts constantly employed for the past three years, and sixty-five are now at work. In addition to this work, part of the Staunton-Greenville road, in the new New York to Atlanta automobile route, has been let to contract.

The board of supervisors, in order to keep the new highways in repair, has adopted a resolution to ask the Legislature for the privilege of putting toil gates on all the new macadam roads. They feel that automobilists and others who use the roads should keep them up.

Camphell Jury Gives $550 Damages to Men Whose Horse Was Scared,

[Epecial to The Times-Dispatch.]

LYNCHBURG, VA., November 10.—

At Rustburg to-day the suit of James H. Bell and William Bell, of Campbell county, against Melton Belton, of Lynchburg, in which $1,000 damages was asked, was tried before a jury, and a verdict for $550 returned.

The plaintiffs alleged that a year ago, while they were driving two horses to a wagon, they met the defendant and his automobile, which caused the horses to run off, break their wagon and fracture the arm of William Bell.
